> Mouse of Representatives. WASHINGTON, May 17, 1856.

LARDS FOR RAILROADS IN MICHIGAN. Mr. Whirmings, (nigger worshipper) of Mich., from the Coun stee on Public Lands, reported a bill granting a notate alternate sections to Michigan, to aid in the one etrustion of radiroads. The bill appropriates about from similar bils, recently passed.

Mr. Jones, (dem.) of Tenn., asked Mr. Walbridge to withdraw his demand for the previous question. He thought the opportunity should be afforded the enemies of such bil's to be heard.

Mr. Walerings replied that he had moved the previcus question to save useless discussion, the principles involved being well understood, having been debated for

Mr. CRAIGE, (dem.) of N. C., thought the bill should a least be printed, in order to afford an opportunity for examination. The gag should not be applied.

The motton to table was negatived by 67 against 80. The bill was passed by 78 against 58.

The New England Emigrant Ald Company Boston, May 27, 1856. The New England Emigrant Ald Company held their accual meeting in this city this afternoon. There was a The report of the directors speaks of recent events in the reported destruction of Lawrence and peril of their agent, Gen. Pomercy. The total receip's for the year have been $67.184. They have sawmills in various parts of the Territory. The company hold their land in Topeks and Lawrence by legal title, and cannot be dispossessed. The statement was made that the handsomes: stores in Lawrence were owned by Missourians.

The emigration frem New England to Kansas, the present spring, has not been very large--say from 400 to 500 persons; but from Ohio and the other Western States it has been quite ex ensive. More free State emigrant have gone from the Southern and Western States this season, than all the emigrants from New England. It was stated that Mrs. Robinson had started on her return to her husband, saying that she was determined o be near bim during the present crisis. It was proposed to form aid societies to relieve the wants of the people of Lawrence, and it was aunounced that Mr. Orne, of Hartford, hal subjeribed $1,900 for that purpose. It was recommerded by Mr. Ell THAYER, that these aid societies be formed altogether independent of the com-pany, allower New England, to furnish not only supplies to the suffering, but the means to send forward those who are willing to go to Kansas, but have not the meaus. A meeting was announced for to-morro v to obtain subscriptions for this purpose.

After speeches from various gentlemen in favor of con-tinuing the enterprise, the following resolution was offered by Professor Stone, and unanimously adopted. Escoved, That we express our deep sympathy with the set-tless in Kansas, now suffering from the lawless oursages of the slave power, and our determination, settled and unalterable, is a flord them all the aid we law will yand rightfully may, and to prosecute to a successful issue the right cours and giorious work which we have been permitted by Divine Providence to commence.

It was announced that a memorial would be sent to Congress, ask ng remuneration for destruction of the property of the company in Lawrence, amounting to from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars.

John Carter Brown, of Providence, was then elected

President, and the other officers of last year re-elected. A number of new names were added to the list of Disectors, among them being Pro'essor Silliman, of New Haven; Horace Bushnell, of Hartford; Moses H. Grinnell Wm. Cullen Bryant, Heary H. Elliot, Wm. M. Evarts Edwin D. Morgan, Wm. Curtis Noyes and Henry C Bowen of New York, Horace R. Claffin, Edward W. Fishe and Rollin Sandford, of Brooklyn; and J. L. Bailey, Slavery and the New England Branch Ame rican Tract Society.

Boston, May 27, 1855. At a meeting of the New England American Branch Bract Society to-day, after an earnest and interesting discussion, Rev. A. L. Stone was elected on the Execu tive Committee, in place of the Rev. Nehemia Adams, author of the "South Side View of Slavery." Mr. Ston received 56 votes, and Mr. Atams 43. The opposition to his re-election was, that New England should no: be re presented in a national society by a person holding the

The National Abolition and New York Black Republican Conventions. SYRACUSE, May 27, 1856

The New York Black Republican State Convention and the National Abelition Convention will assemble here to morrow for the purpose of appointing delegates to the National Numinating Convention, which meets in Phila The delegates have not all arrived yet, and, judging from present appearances, the representation at either of these bodies will not be very full.

The abolisionists do not come in strong force; but, as one of them said, " If it is not great in numbers, it will be strong in principles." Their choice for Presidential candidate is, I understand, Gerri t Smith, (white man), and for Vice President, Frederick Doug'ass, (colored) The platform which the Convention intend to will resemble, in many particulars, that scopt of the black republicans. There will be reattering series of necolutions upon the present state of things in Kansse, and the free State men are to be encouraged to fight till the "last armed foe expires," &: Upon the assault on Mr. Summer there will be more reso lutions equally strong, and expressive of their determ nation to put a stop to what they call the spirit of slavery aggression. The black republicans say they are unanimous on objects for which the Convention is called, and that they mill stand by the platform adopted in the address at the Pitteburg Convention. The majority of delegates ar said to be in favor of Sagard for their Presidential can didate, and will so instruct the delegates to be appoints to the National Convention. Col. Fremont, however, ha strong friends, who determined to contest his claim to the last. Seward's partisans are willing to compromise matters by offering him the nomination for Vice Presi-dent; but it will be refused with indignation. Chase, of Ohio, is sp.ken of as a nominee for the Presidency, and Summes is regarded as one of the strongest claimants be-fore the Convention. There will be a number of resolutions devoted to him; and, on account of the fund of sympathy created for him by the personal assault of Brooks, he may receive the nomination. It is hardly probable that he will, however. The political capital created by public sympathy, real or supposed, for a broken bead, is not of a very reliable character. The "knowing ones," at least, are too shrewd to think it will last till the Presidential election, and so Sumner's chances, after all, are rather poor. The Pittsburg platform will be somewhat modified, but will suffer little or no change in what principles it possesses. The destruction of the town of Lawrence is to receive marked notice, and upon the expediency or policy of resommending the free State men to fight it out there will, it is expected, be a warm dis-cussion. On this point, however, the aboli louists will be ahead of them; but, as Lewis Tappan told me, the black republicans, although not quite up to their stan-dard, soon will be, and after a little while may stan

There is a sort of brotherly feeling existing between them, already, and the fact of their having chosen the sam town to hold their conventions in, is looked upon by th ranguine of both sections as auspicious of an early union. lyn, yesterday, the case of David W. Pierce and David Pierce against James Hanford and George W. Brush, for damages sustained by the vessel and cargo, through the improper interference of the defendants, was brought to a close. In his charge to the jury, Judge Culver said that there was very little doubt as to two out of the four questions to be considered by them, viz:—the ownership of the brig, and the interference of the defendants with her after she had suck. He then explained the law under which the Sheriff, Coroner, &c. of a county would be entitled to take possession of a wreek. For constitute a legal wreek, the vessel, cargo or goods must be thrown upon the shore, and it was for the jury to determine whether the vessel in question was slegal wreek or not. If they found it was a legal wreek an important question was, whether it was within the jurisdiction of the county of Kings. In the 19th o Johns'on there were two decisions reported, in the latter of which it was held that all within low was er unacted. damages sustained by the vessel and cargo, through the jurisdiction of the county of August Johnston there were two decisions reported, in the ter of which it was held that all within low wa er u belonged to the city and county of New York, in vi of the old charter of that city.
